

Provide the information requested or suggested from the following statements and place your answer on your answer sheet. Spelling should be within reason.

1. without a day set for meeting again
2. the Latin for "c" in $E=mc^2$
3. official of the United States Marine Corps
4. Latin for "in this sign you will conquer"
5. that which must be brought back (to the people)
6. excessive pride or arrogance
7. "to the point of sickness"
8. mirabile _____
9. Latin for "I do something for you; you do something for me" (does not involve washing hands)
10. "let the buyer beware!"
11. stentorian
12. your stumbling block or unconquerable foe
13. an attack upon the individual instead of debating the issues
14. Latin abbreviation used to list examples
15. Labor omnia vincit
16. R.I.P. = _____ in pace
17. the good ol' days; nostalgic time of peace and prosperity
18. a source of evils best left alone
19. to heap one problem on top of another, as in making a bad situation worse
20. "another win of this sort and we are utterly undone" (victory at great cost)
21. Pro Deo, _____, _____ (2 words)
22. Be patient! Anything of size or quality takes time!
23. Julius Caesar's famous boast after the Battle of Zela
24. A "B.A." degree is a Baccalareus _____
25. per se
26. an angry, violent person, usually a woman
27. the Latin abbreviation for "the Senate and the People of Rome"
28. caught red-handed (blazing or not)
29. official motto of the USA
30. a race 26.2 miles long, such as the one run by Pheidippides after the Athenians defeated the Persians
31. the cause of war
32. slow or sluggish
33. stop talking about it and do it!
34. Cedant arma _____
35. Ignorantia legis neminem excusat
36. Latin abbreviation for "that which had to be proved"
37. A mari usque _____
38. an older, wiser individual who takes a younger one under their wing for training or education
39. mysterious or occult
40. "with the (necessary) change having been turned (back)"
41. "to the point of infinity"; never-ending
42. _____ non disputandum (one man's trash is another man's treasure)
43. originally, an athletic conference comprising four snooty schools
44. the chi-rho symbol
45. an Achaean
46. Veritas vos liberabit
47. Sic Semper _____
48. temporary; for a specific purpose
49. that which will require all your efforts and resources
50. "my fault"
51. official motto of Spotsylvania County
52. Nihil sub sole novum
53. Stolidi rident verba Latina
54. an absolute necessity
55. conversation or information usually reserved for the place where three roads meet
56. type of courses taken for a B.S. degree
57. a horn of plenty, symbol of nature's abundance
58. a slip of the tongue
59. that period of time between rulers; last used between popes
60. Non est _____ mollis e terris via
61. areté
62. _____ extendimus factis; official motto of the City of Fredericksburg
63. festina lente
64. "for the public good"
65. Latin for "from the beginning"
66. hot as _____
67. forever and always
68. for the Greeks, a huge monster who filled the heavens with her raging fury
69. "those things which must be done"
70. boldly creative or innovative
71. entirely, wholly, altogether
72. Cave canem!
73. Latin abbreviation for "from the founding of the city"
74. for each individual
75. gnothi seauton (the Greek phrase above the entrance to the Temple of Apollo at Delphi)
76. Latin abbreviation used to restate or explain the previous statement
77. onus
78. Whose motto is Semper Paratus?
79. no matter how hard you work, you never seem to make any progress
80. a writ requiring by law one's appearance in court